

2026 AUMOVIO Specific Privacy Notice (SPS)

The Consumer Technology Association (CTA) Consumer Electronics Show
CES® Event in Las Vegas, NV (“CES Las Vegas”)
Last Updated: December 18, 2025

1. Introduction

AUMOVIO Systems, Inc. and its affiliates and subsidiaries (collectively “AUMOVIO”, “our”, “we”, or “us”) are committed to protecting the privacy of your Personal Information. This Specific Privacy Statement (SPS) explains how AUMOVIO processes Personal Information collected from you and/or when you participate in our product exhibits and demonstrations at the 2026 Consumer Electronics Show (“CES Las Vegas”). Our products and services are not available to minors. You must be 18 years of age to interact with us or provide us with Personal Information. By interacting with us and providing your Personal Information, you represent that you are at least 18.

2. What personal data do we collect, for what purpose, and through which technical means?

In the course of event registration or participation, and displaying, presenting, and demonstrating our products and services at CES Las Vegas, AUMOVIO may collect, process, transfer, use, or otherwise have access to various information and data, including your Personal Information. “Personal Information” refers to any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person and includes but is not limited to “personal data”, “personal information”, and other substantially equivalent terms defined in applicable data protection laws.

- Information You Provide to Us Directly. We collect the Personal Information you provide to us directly.
- Information from 3rd Party Sources. We may receive your Personal Information from 3rd party sources, including the CTA and others responsible for the operation, management, organization, and administration of CES Las Vegas (including but not limited to Maritz).
- Information from AUMOVIO eye-viewing direction cameras in exhibition units. We will process eye-viewing gaze/direction in real-time but no data is recorded or retained.

3.1 Processed personal data:

- a) Identifiers such as name, alias/preferred name, professional/job title, employer name, postal address, photograph, badge ID/number, unique personal identifier, online identifier, phone number, email address, or other similar identifying information
- b) Sensory information such as real-time camera view of eye gaze captured by our products at our exhibition areas
- c) Inferences drawn from any of the above information regarding eye viewing direction (distracted or engaged)
- d) Other Information you chose to provide to us via CTA and CES Event organizers including topic/business interests and buying influence
- e) Other Information you may choose to provide when you interact with us, such as professional affiliation including the name of the entity where you work and your sector of employment
- f) Your actual contribution or feedback to the exhibit including your opinion

Your participation should not include any directly or indirectly identifying confidential information, sensitive or special categories of personal data (racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or political beliefs, trade union membership, genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person’s sex life or sexual orientation).

2.2 Purpose of the processing

The purpose of the processing is the running and management of the exhibit and demonstration booth/s (including the collection, storage, and internal sharing of personal data). As relevant, your feedback/contribution will be processed for the purposes of re-assessing, and where necessary, further developing AUMOVIO products and services.

Further, for the purpose of transparency, feedback/contributions received will be shared internally on a need-to-know basis as described in the introduction and below.

AUMOVIO staff will perform a limited screening of all files and feedback/contributions provided for the sole purpose of analyzing for relevance and applicability. After this, the feedback/contributions are made available internally to AUMOVIO business contacts and deleted pursuant to AUMOVIO's Data Retention Policy. Data and/or documents attached received from the CES Event organizers are not altered in any way by AUMOVIO.

Please note that, by participating in the exhibit/demonstration, you acknowledge that your personal data and feedback/contributions will be shared internally at AUMOVIO. Unless you object to the sharing of your name as an individual respondent/participant, your name, contact information, and professional affiliation will be shared internally at AUMOVIO.

2.3 Technical means

To collect your contribution/feedback, we may use two alternative tools depending on the context of the specific demonstration/exhibit. For the exhibits, feedback/contributions and personal data may be submitted by the participant through the CES Las Vegas tool available. For direct conversations during the exhibits, the feedback/contributions are documented and submitted by AUMOVIO staff.

For consultations/feedback/contributions which use an CES Las Vegas event tool, the CTA acts as a processor by providing us access to the tool. Please note that upon using the CES Las Vegas event tool, the CTA may gather your personal data for its own purposes, in which case it is controller for that separate processing.

3. Who has access to your personal data and to whom are they disclosed?

We do not "sell" or use your Personal Information for automated decision-making as such terms are defined under applicable data protection laws nor do we have any future plan to do so. However, to facilitate interactions and communications, we may disclose your Personal Information to the following on a need-to-know and need-to-do basis:

- Our Affiliates and Subsidiaries. We may share your Personal Information within the AUMOVIO group of companies, which includes parents, corporate affiliates, subsidiaries, business units, and other companies that share common ownership for the purposes described above.
- Law Enforcement. We may share your Personal Information with law enforcement or other government agencies to comply with the law or to protect the rights, property or safety of AUMOVIO, our guests, or third parties during the CES Las Vegas event.

4. Are your personal data subject to any international transfers?

Your personal data submitted to AUMOVIO may be subject to international transfers to other AUMOVIO entities pursuant to AUMOVIO's Intra-Group Data Protection Agreement (IGDPA) which ensures compliance with our legal obligations under the Data Protection Laws regarding our data processing activities including third-country data transfers of Personal Data involving AUMOVIO and all of its Subsidiaries.

5. How do we protect and safeguard your personal data?

In order to protect your personal data, AUMOVIO has put in place appropriate Technical and Organizational Measures (TOMS). Technical measures include actions to address online security, risk of data loss, alteration of data or unauthorized access, taking into consideration the risk presented by the processing and the nature of the personal data being processed. Organizational measures include restricting access to the personal data solely to authorized persons with a legitimate need to know for the purposes of this processing operation. AUMOVIO, abide by statutory, and when required, additional confidentiality agreements.

Additionally, AUMOVIO has an integrated state of the art security & privacy by design principles throughout the entire Product Lifecycle to Prevent, Detect, and Respond to cybersecurity threats. Our Cybersecurity Management System (CSMS) combines systematic threat analysis and risk assessment with clear policies and rules to ensure compliance with relevant laws, regulations, and industry standards. Further details on our holistic approach can be found online at <https://www.aumovio.com/en/solutions/cybersecurity.html>.

6. For how long do we keep your personal data?

AUMOVIO considers contributions/feedback and information relating to CES Las Vegas event participants as documents with historical or administrative value to be transferred and preserved in archives in principle. We keep your personal data for the time necessary to fulfill the purpose of collection or further processing unless we are required to do otherwise by applicable law. This includes retaining your Personal Information to demonstrate to you the products or services and to interact with you; improve our business over time; for other legitimate business purposes, such as to demonstrate our business practices; provide you with information about our products and services in case of interest; or otherwise in accordance with our internal data retention policy and procedures. If you would like to know more about the retention periods applicable to your Personal Information, you can contact us using details provided in the Contact Information below.
